Matt,

We have reviewed your letter, and it is clear the parties cannot agree on several key issues. We prefer to receive the documents you have agreed to produce and resolve the remaining discovery disputes between the parties prior to taking Aspen's deposition. Thus, we will pass the current scheduled deposition until these issues are resolved. To that end, please let us know if you will agree to submit these issues to Judge Frank Maas as discovery arbitrator pursuant to the attached order. We will further draft a proposed stipulation as to the points discussed in our correspondence.

Thank you,

Dean and Kody,

Please see the attached correspondence. Please let me know, as soon as possible, if you still intend to move forward the deposition on Friday.

Best regards,
Matt
